

COLLOQUIA SERZY SKOWRONEK DEDICATA

Archives in the social environment of the 21st century

21-22 May 2015, Warsaw

PROGRAMME

20 May 2015 (Wednesday)

Arrival of participants

15:45-19:00 Visit to The Museum of the History of Polish Jews POLIN
(for registered participants only)

21 May 2015 (Thursday)

8:30-9:00 Registration

9:00-9:40 Conference opening
Key lecture: New times, new relations – Andrzej Biernat, Władysław Stępniać

9:40-10:40 SESSION

The increasing role of archives in the modern society – Ion Varta (Moldova)

Providing services to citizens through archival institutions – the case of the General State Archives – Marietta Minotos (Greece)

Archives as institutions which provide services to citizens – Adamir Jerković (Bosnia and Herzegovina)

10:40-11:10 Coffee break

11:10-13:10 SESSION

Public services at the State Archive in Bratislava, Šaľa branch – Júlia Ďurčová (Slovakia)

Dissemination of documents and education in the Lithuanian Central State Archives – Reda Vainauskaite (Lithuania)

Access to the archival holdings of the Russian Federation – current issues – Tatian G. Zanina (Russia)

Access to the holdings of the Institute of National Remembrance for researchers and publicists in the light of legal regulations change – Rafał Dyrz (Poland)

The researchers and visitors of the National Archives of Latvia and their requests. Situation analysis 2011-14 – Linda Plesa (Latvia)

Discussion

13:10-14:10 Lunch

14:10-16:10 SESSION

Users of the Lithuanian state archives: future perspectives – Danutė Kotrimavičienė (Lithuania)

Inviting the next generation of archive users – Dagmar Hovestadt (Germany)

Do archives give a reliable, comprehensive and trustworthy picture of a society? – Jussi Nuorteva (Finland)

Social network challenges for archives – Tatjana Hajtnik, Miroslav Novak (Slovenia)

Experience of crowdsourcing in the National Archives of Estonia – Liisi Taimre (Estonia)

Discussion

16:10-16:40 Coffee break

16:40-19:00 SESSION

Croatian State Archives public services programmes - new models for a contemporary social environment – Vlatka Lemić (Croatia)

Collective memory and freedom of information. Social relations and customer service in the Historical Archives of the Hungarian State Security – Gergő Bendegúz Cseh (Hungary)

The position of the Institute of National Remembrance in the social space. Educational and promotional activities – the case of the Office for the Preservation and Dissemination of Archival Records, Branch in Rzeszów – Robert Witalec (Poland)

Cooperation of the Central Archives of Historical Records with civic organisations – Hubert Wajs (Poland)

Cooperation with social organizations in Polish state archives - the case of the Central Archives of Modern Records in Warsaw – Tadeusz Krawczak, Mariusz Olczak (Poland)

Discussion and summary

20:00 Reception

22 May 2015 (Friday)

9:00-11:00 SESSION

Identification of the environment as a basis for public relation activities in archives – Marlena Jabłońska (Poland)

Public relations – a daily reality in archives or a requirement of this day and age? – Rafał Reczek (Poland)

A Romanian perspective on the cultural use of the archives – Alina Pavelescu (Romania)

Informational and research tools for Russian archival documents on the Internet – Elena A. Romanova (Russia)

Holdings of the state archives of the Republic of Belarus as a source of mutual bonds in contemporary society – Ryhor S. Zhauniarkevich (Belarus)

Discussion

11:00-11:30 Coffee break

11:30-13:10 SESSION

Enhancing access to archival documents – the Federal Archives' microsite 'Centenary of the First World War' – Tobias Herrmann (Germany)

Enhancing the visibility of the Iasi Archives in the post-communist social environment – Florin Cintic (Romania)

Archives, archivists and society: Best practices in the Kaunas County Archives –

Gintaras Dručkus, Kristina Stanišauskė (Lithuania)

The Gelders Archives in the 21st Century: a new orientation – Fred van Kan (Netherlands)

Discussion

13:10-14:10 Lunch

14:10-15:50 SESSION

A social campaign of the state archives ‘Become a Family Archivist!’ – Anna Belka (Poland)

Dissemination of knowledge on the Institute's archive records and contemporary history – the case study of the Office for the Preservation and Dissemination of Archival Records of the Institute of National Remembrance, Branch in Wrocław – Dariusz Misiejuk (Poland)

To inform, to popularize, to educate – the case study of the Office for the Preservation and Dissemination of Archival Records of the Institute of National Remembrance, Branch in Katowice – Renata Dziechciarz (Poland)

On-line access to the archives of the united Europe – Archives Portal Europe – Anna Rogowska (Poland)

Discussion

15:50-16:20 Coffee break

16:20-17:00 SESSION

The Cross of Freedom and Solidarity. The role of the archive of the Institute of National Remembrance in commemoration of heroes of anti-communist opposition of 1956-1989 – Luiza Lubańska (Poland)

Holdings of the Institute of National Remembrance vs. retirement rights unjustly acquired by former security service officers: the social role of implementing the Act on Former Security Service Officers – Joanna Sobotka (Poland)

17:00-17:30 Discussion and closing

INSTYTUT
PAMIĘCI
NARODOWEJ