

Collecting of archive resources in the digital world of the 21st century
22-23 May 2014, Warsaw

P R O G R A M

22 May 2014 (Thursday)

9.30-10.00 Registration

10.00-10.15 Opening ceremony

10.15-10.45 Key lecture: Andrzej Biernat – The collection of archives in the digital world of the 21. century – old or new challenges

10.45-11.30 I SESSION: Collecting of electronic records in archives.
Experiences and problems – part 1

The Risk of ‘archival chaos’. About the necessity of a governmental strategy suitable to the rapid change in the archival field – Ioan Dragan, Romania

The Estonian approach and practices for collecting digital records from public agencies by a semi-automated adjustable software – Lauri Leht, Estonia

11.30-12.00 Coffee break

12.00-13.30 I SESSION: Collecting of electronic records in archives.
Experiences and problems – part 2

Digital vs. paper records: reassessing our collection policies – Gatis Karlsons, Aleksejs Starikovs, Latvia

Digitization of the archives of the former secret services of Bulgaria – problems and possible decisions – Boris Mihaylov, Bulgaria

Are exabytes of memory needed for archives? – Kazimierz Schmidt, Poland

Discussion

13.30-14.30 Lunch

14.30-16.00 I SESSION: Collecting of electronic records in archives.
Experiences and problems – part 3

Formation of e-content of the state archives of the Republic of Belarus – Volha Ledauskaja, Belarus

Appraisal of electronic documents based on the systems of automatic recognition of their contents – Jacek Mirecki, Poland

The problem of appraisal of electronic records as historical resources for future researchers of history of the 21. century – Małgorzata Szabaciuk, Poland

Discussion

16.00-16.30 Coffee break

16.30-18.00 I SESSION: Collecting of electronic records in archives.
Experiences and problems – part 4

Being part of the digital world: electronic records and interoperability – Daiva Lukšaitė, Lithuania

Normative and methodical documents on electronic records management in records keeping and archives: The Russian Federation experience – Valentina Yankovaya, Russia

Legal framework and current issues of informatization of the archival service in Uzbekistan – Firuza Dadaeva, Mehribon Nabieva, Uzbekistan

Integrated system of the operative card-indexes – Wojciech Sawicki, Poland

Discussion and summary

20.00 Gala dinner

23 May 2014 (Friday)

10.00-11.30 II SESSION: Mass documentation in a digital world, databases and the Internet – what can we preserve in archives? – part 1

Collecting of mass documentation – selected problems, problem of choice – Iwona Fischer, Poland

Preserving digital databases: practical experiences from National Archives of Finland – Markus Merenmies, Finland

Experience of collecting of materials from the Belarus population census in 2009 – Viachaslau Nasevich, Belarus

Discussion

11.30-12.00 Coffee break

12.00-13.30 II SESSION: Mass documentation in a digital world, databases and the Internet – what can we preserve in archives? – part 2

Criteria for appraisal of electronic information resources as a source of historical information – Taras Kuprunets, Ukraine

Website evaluation and legal aspects of their archiving. Selected initiatives – Jacek Słoma, Poland

Sustainable online publishing of metadata descriptions on polish archival holdings in the European Holocaust Research Infrastructure: resource discovery and connection to the sources – Veerle Vanden Daelen, Belgium; Mike Priddy, Netherlands

Discussion

13.30-14.30 Lunch

14.30-16.00 III SESSION: Digitisation of archival documents and issue of accessibility

Digitization in Croatian state Archive – Amir Obhodaš, Croatia

Guidelines for ingest, digital preservation and access to the cultural heritage e-content – Tatjana Hajtnik, Slovenia

Digitization at the Archives of the BStU – projects and perspectives – Carsten Stühling, Peter Janker, Germany

Certification policy for IPN's Public Key Infrastructure System – Andrzej Pieczunko, Poland

Discussion

16.00-16.30 Summary and conclusions of the conference